PROF. DIVEKAR'S YOGIC FEATS

SALE OF THE AMEERA" BENEFIT SHOW

On the Skating Rink grounds on Saturday amidst a distinguished gathering comprising of Their Highnesses the Maharani Regent Scindia of Gwalior, Maharaja of Bikaner, Nawab Begum of Janjira, Rani of Dewas, Raja of Mudhol, Sahebdada of Patanpur, Kunwar of Rajpipla and State officials, Prof. Divekar gave evidence of his super-natural powers. The printed programme comprised of about a dozen items subject to alteration, out of which the following were displayed. Washing hands in deadliest poisons and retaining them for a considerable time, eating glass, breaking police hand-cuffs in small pieces, complete burial under earth for 8 minutes and placing burning logs for 35 minutes from abdomen to knee. The Yogi was frightfully upset when earth was removed after 8 minutes, he having gone off in a trance for 20 minutes or more at least, and as it was past mid night and as his one leg was still injured by the recent accident of a jump from 60 feet, it was thought advisable to bring the abnormal feats to a close by the organiser.

Atiya Begum during the course of her speech condemned strongly the indifferent attitude of the Corporation and the Schools Committee in permitting the municipal schools to be still in the same bad condition as before to such an extent that a Municipal Urdu Girl's School opened last year in Bazaram Street was asked to be closed as the neglected condition of it was something dreadful. In spite of such appalling public scandals no steps were taken by the authorities concerned to remedy the evil, she had to open a Model School and hoped to show practically what sort of education she had been advocating. She invited all to visit the school, as she has applied for grant-in-aid. She thanked in warm terms all who helped her in the show. Prof. Divekar, Mr. Patel, the Skating Rink, the Sports Club athorities, the Police, the Press, the Volunteers, the Ruling Princes and others.

Mr. Jamnias Mehta congratulated Atiya Begum on her brave venture and admitted that the municipal school's needed reformation and spoke in high terms about the Professor's marvellous Yogic powers.

The performance was not a great financial success. About Rs. 500 worth of tickets were sold. Many people rushed in without tickets.

FOOT BALL

HARWOOD LEAGUE

ULSTERS BEAT THE POLICE.

On Thursday evening the second match of the Harwood League resulted in the Ulsters beating the Police by three goals to nil. Evidently the League will be very popular this year for although the season is yet young a fair crowd turned up in the stands while the free sides were packed. It was not a great game but both sides showed real promise, and after a little moulding into shape, should do well in the league. Rumour has it that this was the first occasion on which the Police team were playing together, and if this is so, then they need have no anxiety, for they have a good collection of players and only a good understanding is required to make them into a good team. The Ulsters, though they won, also looked rather rough hewn, but a little experience in local conditions will make a vast difference in their team work, for the talent is obviously there.

A fair pace was set at the beginning the soldiers having slightly the better of the exchanges. Todd on the right wing was frequently away with the ball, but in Gardiner he found a keen tackler and tireless defender who shadowed him well. Most of the soldiers' dangerous movements began in the middle and Cowan had the opportunity of netting the first goal. Carter in the Police goal was frequently called upon but he shaped well, while Hewson in the pivotal position put in a lot of hard work. Before the interval arrived Ennis added to the score.

After half-time several adjustments were made in the Police team and though this kept the scoring down it seriously impeded good team work. The soldiers' forwards combined well but proved to be rather slow in front of goal. Ennis was unlucky to hit the bar with a stinging shot and Carter saved several shots from all three inside forwards. The Police forwards on the other hand were not idle. Littlehood dashed off down the right wing and sent in a splendid high shot which Hearson had great difficulty in negotiating. A scramble followed in the soldiers' goal but Leatham cleared. For the Ulsters Fitzsimmons and Watson were combining well, the former especially playing a splendid game. Another dangerous Police raid almost resulted in a score. Hampton, obtaining the ball on the left wing, worked round and shot from close quarters, but Hearson gathered the ball and cleared. The Ulsters retaliated and Ennis scored with a really fine shot, the ball glancing into the net off the upright. Several good shots just missed after this and full time arrived with the Ulsters leading by three goals.

ULSTERS	3 goals.
POLICE	Nil.

CASE AGAINST MR. G. B. TRIVEDI WITHDRAWN

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—A report has appeared in the issue of your paper dated 5th instant which purports to give a correct version of a case in the Esplanade Police Court filed by Mr. Parbhudas Ramji against Mr. G. B Trivedi and myself. The case was heard on several occasions and at the last hearing the parties came to a certain terms. As regards myself it was definitely understood that I was to give an undertaking "Without prejudice to my contentions."—Yours, etc.,

GALA DAY FOR JAINS

SHATRUNJAYA PILGRIMAGE OPENS TO-DAY

H. H. THAKORE SAHEB TO PERFORM CEREMONY.

PALITANA, May 31.

To-morrow is "gala" day for the Jains. Every train coming to Palitana brings in hundreds of Jains. Amratlal Kaadas and other representatives of Sheth Anandji Kalyanji have arrived here yesterday and are staying at Lakhadhir Vila as State guests. The Jain volunteers and some of the State servants are looking after the comforts of the pilgrims who would climb the Hill to-morrow morning at six, after His Highness the Thakore Saheb having performed the opening ceremony.

It is understood His Highness would lead the Jain pilgrims to the peak of the Hill where the shrines are situated. Jains would come down before the evening. They, generally as a rule, neither drink nor eat anything on the Hill. They do not stay or sleep there at night as it is regarded as an abode of gods too sacred for mortals to use for habitation.

TO-DAY'S OPENING CEREMONY.

Mr. Chimanbhai K. Mehta, the Dewan saheb, seems to be very painstaking to make to-morrow's opening ceremony a grand success. A special train conveying Jain pilgrims from Bombay among whom were Babu Bhagvanlal Panalal, Babu Amichand, Jivatlal Pratapsia, Motichand Girdhar Kapadia, Nagindas Karachand Sanghvi, Chhotalal Premji and Balubhai Patanvala arrived here this evening. Among the pilgrims there are many ladies. Jains from Ahmedabad and other parts of Gujarat have already come here. Many more are expected to leave Bombay on Saturday. Jains visit this place for the pilgrimage to the sacred Hill of Shatrunjayk and in celebration of the victory in the long and righteous struggle. They would fulfill their religious duty and vows to-morrow morning when His Highness the Thakore Saheb of Palitana will perform the ceremony of opening the pilgrimage. Jains seem to be in great joy as if the doors of heaven till now barred have suddenly been thrown open to them. Leading Jains including Kuvarji Anandji from Bhavnagar joined the pilgrims coming from Bombay at Sihor. A large number of Jains including women congregated at every halting station "en route."—A. P.

JAIN-PALITANA SETTLEMENT

TELEGRAMS TO VICEROY AND THAKORE SAHIB

The Honorary Secretary of the Jain Association of India have adressed the following telegrams to the Viceroy, and the Thakore Saheb of Palitana.

"The Jain Association of India respectfully expresses wholehearted gratitude at your Excellencys' happy intervention in bringing about settlement of long pending Shatrunjaya disputes between the Jain community and the Palitana Durbar and in protecting the rights of the Jain Communities as British subjects."

"Very much pleased to hear resumption of happy relations between your Highness and the Jain community wish same will be permanent."

Mr. Kikabhai has also sent the following telegrams:—

"To the Thakore Sahib—On the solemn occasion of renewing their pilgrimage, the Jain community desire to thank your Highness most warmly for helping to bring about a settlement of the matters in dispute. They trust that future relations between the Palitana Durbar and their community may always be amicable and that no untoward event may disturb the harmony embodied in the agreement which has been concluded with the kindly help and wise guidance of His Excellency the Viceroy."

"To the Viceroy—On the eve of renewing their immemorial pilgrimage to the holy shrines on Shatrunjaya the Jain community desire most sincerely to thank Your Excellency for redeeming them out of all their trouble. They have never wavered in their belief in the cause and they have been equally steadfast in their conviction that if all other means should fail Your Excellency would ultimately bring about a just settlement. With their fond hopes realised it would to become them on this solemn occasion of renewed liberty in the exercise of their religious rites to forget to give thanks where they are due. On behalf of my committee therefore I tender this expression of deepest gratitude and crave permission to add my own appreciation of Your Excellency's tactful guidance and ardent solicitude for a righteous ending of our sorrows."

It is understood that a special session of the Bengal Council to elect Provincial Committee of seven members for sitting with the Simon Commission will be held on July 9 and 10.—A. P.

Under the Clock

(BY "TWINPLEX.")

FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1928.

"From the Plough-boy to the President" was the jubilant slogan with which the "Times of India" greeted President Patel when he ascended the gadi. Now Bori Bunder (Junior) is all fury, because he has shown his "ploughboy mentality" of calling a spade. A "spade" and not a beautiful agricultural instrument.

There is nothing more amazing in the attitude of President Patel than in the attitude of our evening contemporary. In fact, both can't help it. As the tribune of the people, Patel has a "soul to save" while Bori Bunder has a prestige to keep-up.

Thus the Government communique:—"The notion that 5 parties each of 5 Pathans working under the eye of a responsible officer of the Government can terrorise a population of 90,000 persons, as has been alleged in certain newspapers, is incredidable." But in Bardoli, facts are stranger than fictions!

Just Arithmetic, dear reader, elementary too!

"Cow slaughter plus Music before the Mosques is equal to a hundred or more riots in India."

But you must have perceived from my daily notes that I am an intelligent person. Yes?

Thank you!

* * * * *

Now listen, I have found the remedy. "I propose that Government destroy first all musical instruments in India and then deport all the bovine races and traces to a distant land."

Then:—

"O happiness, O heavenly bliss
Muslim Hindu will each other kiss!"

* * * * *

May is a critical month for most beings.

'Mayo' on the other hand created a critical year for India.

* * * *

Now just pay attention for a moment before I forget what I want to say or ere my mathematical mood deserts me.

May is the fifth month of the year. Add to this a zero; it becomes Miss Mayo —o or 50. It is as clear as sunlight—not the soap but the real thing that can kill you with a stroke.

Conclusion:

The agitation about "Mother India" will last for 50 months and after that period is over, it also will go the way all worldly things have gone!

This is a quotation from my unpublished book on Astrology, entitled: "A Fool in the Milky Way."

Of course there are many-eyed, two eyed, one-eyed, half-eyed, quarter-eyed, and so on, spirits in this world, the last stage being the blind ones.

Now if you look at India, say, with a quarter-eyed spirit like Miss Mayo's, naturally this country becomes a hole large, filthy and hot.

But looking the same way at everything or at everyplace would carry us to such conclusions as the following that:

1. Chicago is inhabited only by bandits and bootleggers.
2. That London is a fairly large railway station where confidence tricksters thrive.
3. That to become somebody an Englishman has to be born in India.
4. That all the Chinese are liars.

Flapper—(Alluding to gentleman at farthiest corner) Oh, my dear, he is a perfect bore.

Ultra-Flapper—You must be mistaken, dear, no men are perfect.

IN AID OF BOMBAY STRIKER

TEXTILE WORKERS' INTERNATIONAL SANCTIONS £ 1000

Mr. R. R. Bakhale cables from Ghent, where he is attending the International Textile Workers' Congress as representative of Indian Textile Workers, that 1,000 pounds has been sanctioned for the help of the Textile Workers on Strike.

QUITE COMPETENT TO OPEN NEGOTIATIONS

JT. STRIKE COMMITTEE'S VIEW

The offer of the millowners to enter with the representatives of registered Trade Unions has given the strike situation quite a new and hopeful aspect. It is felt by some leaders that the offer is a reasonable one and must be accepted in the interests of the industry as well as of the workers.

STRIKE COMMITTEE'S CLAIM.

Evidently the Joint Strike Committee thinks otherwise! At its meeting held in the Damodar Thakersey Hall on Thursday morning after a good deal of discussion, it was decided that millowners be addressed again on the question of opening direct negotiations with the Committee itself and not with the representatives of individual Unions. The Committee claimed to consist entirely of representatives of registered trade unions and was therefore quite competent to open negotiations on behalf of the workers.

'BLACK-LEGS' SMEARED WITH BLACK POWDER.

The usual meeting at Nagu Sayaji's Wadi was marked by an incident which when it came to the notice of some leaders was condemned. It appears two "blacklegs" were caught by some volunteers in the act of entering a mill and their faces were besmeared with black powder. They were then marched to the meeting place at Nagu Sayaji's Wadi where they were the objects of contemptuous glances of the strikers. However when the matter came to the notice of the leaders, they were allowed to go, but not before they had suffered the humiliation for about an hour.

LILLOOAH WORKERS MODIFY DEMANDS

TOWARDS AN EARLY SETTLEMENT

CALCUTTA, May 31.

In a statement circulated to the press, Mr. K. C. Mitra, the Lilloah strikes leader, states:—

"With a view to reaching an early settlement, the strikers have again modified their demands. The men have abandoned their claim that Government holidays should be paid for, but insist on Sundays being paid holidays. They have reduced their demand for housing allowance, in lieu of the housing accommodation allowances from twenty to ten per cent."

The Lilloah Workshops will be re-opened to-day, when it is understood, that the strikers will make another attempt to perform Satyagraha in the Loco. Shops.

The Kesoram Cotton Mill strikers are peaceful.—A. P.

MAHARASHTRA PROVINCIAL COOPERATIVE CONFERENCE

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I hope you will permit me to correct a couple of inaccurate statements contained in the telegram from Poona, published in your issue of the 30th regarding the discussions on the Small Holdings Bill reported to have taken place at the Subjects Committee of the Maharashtra Co-operative Conference. I did not urge, either before the point of order was raised or at any later stage of the proceedings, that the Bill should be rejected. Nor did I make any reference, when the point of order was raised, to Government's action in not having consulted public bodies like the Co-operative Institute.—Yours, etc.,

PRESIDENT PATEL'S LEAD.

The Government of Bombay have issued a communique about Bardoli, which purports to be a review of the situation there and a warning but which is really a strange medley of truths, half-truths, misrepresentations and threats. Government's temper may be fairly gauged from the very first sentence in the communique wherein they deliberately and needlessly repeat that the people of Bardoli have the assistance "of persons who do not reside there." The words quoted are but a paraphrase of the insulting term "outsiders," the use of which by Government was stoutly denied by them in their correspondence with the resigned Gujarat M.L.C.'s. Government, however, vehemently defend their engaging forty Pathans to assist the officials and give them the certificate that "their conduct has been exemplary in every respect." Government dismiss the many charges of lawlessness and terrorism brought against the Pahans with the sentence "The notion that 5 parties each of 5 Pathans working under the eye of a responsible officer of Government can terrorise a population of 90,000 persons, as has been alleged in certain newspapers, is incredible." It is credible only to those who have the commonsense to realise that the 90,000 people are not all in one village and are all under a pledge of non-violence and to those who remember the reign of terror set up by smaller batches of Pathans nearer Bombay even when the forces of Government were pitted against them. Government promise to withdraw the Pathans when "the threats to the Vethyas are withdrawn by the Non-Co-operation leaders." The threats being only in the imagination of Government cannot be withdrawn except by themselves.

To come to the main questions at issue, it is significant that Government have not a word against the contentions of the Bardoli leaders except the reiteration of their having made "a most careful enquiry" and of their successive lowering of their assessment from 30 per cent. to 20 per cent. But the communique is full of threats and protestations of Government's might. We are told that Government have already disposed of some defaulters' lands, that the rest "will be disposed of in due course unless the arrears due thereon be sooner paid," that, applicants, Hindus, Mahomedans and Parsis, many of whom reside in Surat district are forthcoming for all this land," and that defaulters' lands, "once disposed of, would never be returned to them." These are futile threats; the Satyagahis have anticipated and reckoned with them and worse contingencies. May we also add that the disposal of the defaulters' lands is not the last word in the episode? Government state that "one sixth of the revenue has already been paid up" but they do not add that this one-sixth includes the receipts by force and that voluntary payments do not exceed more than one per cent. of the revenue due from the taluka. As for Government's statement that those who have paid up "have been threatened by the Non-Co-operation leaders," we have no hesitation in saying that it has no basis in fact.

If Government think that their communique can weaken the Satyagraha movement in Bardoli, they are sadly mistaken and they will not take long to discover their error. The people of Bardoli have a faith in the justice of their cause which no threats or Pathans' raids can shake. The growing support from other parts of the country can only add to that faith. The country is as determined to stand by Bardoli as Bardoli is determined to stand against injustice. Of that determination we find a splendid token in the spirited letter of the Hon. Mr. V. J. Patel to Mahatma Gandhi about Bardoli. After a most careful study of the Bardoli case Mr. Patel is convinced that "the Bardoli people have a just case," that Government's coercive measures have crossed in several instances the bounds of law, order and decency and the arrogant letter of the Commissioner N.D. has painfully aggravated the situation." Mr. Patel's is not empty sympathy. He has already sent to Mahatmaji Rs. 1,000 as his first contribution to the Bardoli defence fund and has promised "to continue to send the same amount from month to month so long as the struggle lasts." That is not all. The worthy brother of Mr. Vallabhbhai adds: "If I find that I can take any other more effective step to help the sufferers of Bardoli, you will not find me lagging behind." It is not at all surprising that the manly tone of Mr. Patel's letter, on which the whole country will congratulate him, has thrown the poor "Evening News" into a fit of impotent rage. After calling him all sorts of names it asks for his immediate resignation, voluntary or compulsory. Now the Government cannot and the Assembly will not compel him to resign. And as for his voluntary resignation, if it is to come about, he will choose his own time rather than our contemporary's convenience. Mr. Vithalbhai is as tough a proposition as his brother Mr. Vallabhbhai at Bardoli. The "Evening News" also goes at Dewan Bahadur Harilal Desai because of the thick rumour in Bombay that he will resign from the Ministry unless a fresh inquiry is immediately instituted by Government. Let the "Evening News" fret and fume, it can do nothing better, nothing worse. Mr. Patel and Dewan Bahadur Desai will choose their own time and manner of offering their best to the people of Bardoli. Mr. Patel has rendered a distinct service to the people of Bardoli and, if the Government of Bombay have the vision and wisdom to realise, to them also. The magnificent lead that he has given by raising the Bardoli issue to a high moral level should strengthen Sir Leslie Wilson in his desire to be true to himself and to the trust reposed in him...a desire the satisfaction of which is being obstructed, as we understand, by the threats of certain Civilian die-hards that they would resign if the reasonable and modest request of the Bardoli peasants for a fresh enquiry is granted. Let Sir Leslie Wilson choose between the disastrous counsels of prestige-ridden Civilians and the promptings of his own generous instinct for fair-play ..."playing Cricket" as he has himself often described it—and of Justice. Meanwhile the people of the country should do their duty without any further delay. The struggle in Bardoli threatens to be grim and long. We think it is necessary to start immediately a Bardoli Defence League of members from all parts of the country who pledge themselves like the Hon. Mr. Patel to contribute a definite amount month by month so long as the struggle lasts. All the might of Government will soon be concentrated on the little taluka of Bardoli. Even so all the strength of the country should be made available to the heroic people of Bardoli. Every man who puts up a good fight for a good cause is an asset to the country and needs to be honoured and helped by it.

THE PALITANA PILGRIMAGE.

The annual pilgrimage to the sacred Shatrunjaya Hills, which was suspended during the last two years as a result of the notorious Watson's award, will be resumed to-day. It is only in the fitness of things that His Highness the Thakore Saheb of Palitana, who has shown a courageous and wise disregard of considerations of false prestige, should in person climb up the sacred hill and declare the pilgrimage open. By this act of princely grace His Highness will remove all the traces of bitterness left by the long drawn dispute between him and the Jain community. And we have no doubt the hope expressed in the telegram to the Thakore Saheb by Mr. Kikabhai Premchand, Chairman of the Special Shatrunjaya Committee, that "the future relations between the Palitana Durbar and their community may always be amicable and that no untoward event may disturb the harmony embodied in the agreement" will be amply realised. Mr. Kikabhai has also wired thanks to His Excellency the Viceroy for "redeeming them (the Jains) out of all their trouble." The Jains, indeed, cannot be too grateful to Lord Irwin for the statesmanlike initiative that he took in summoning the Simla Conference. But next to the Viceroy if there is any individual to whom more than to any other the credit for the happy result, of which the commencement of the pilgrimage to-day is the symbol, is due, it is Mr. Kikabhai himself. It is an open secret that but for the tact and influence exercised by him all the terms of the settlement, especially the levy of Rs. 60,000 which is excessive, would not have been accepted by the community as a whole and the generous atmosphere of give and take would not have prevailed in the Conference. The fact that representative meetings of the Jains held in Bombay and Ahmedabad have unanimously decided to present addresses to Mr. Kikabhai is not merely a well deserved tribute to his services but also a proof that the community is fully satisfied with the terms of settlement arrived at in Simla.

A HOPEFUL TURN.

The strike situation has at last taken a hopeful turn. It seems distinctly probable that negotiations will commence between the representatives of the mill-owners and the strikers in a few days. The difficulty hitherto was that though the strikers had appointed a committee for negotiations, the mill-owners had refused to confer with any but representatives of registered trade unions. The strikers could have with propriety contended that it should not matter whether their representatives belonged to registered unions or not so long as they had their full confidence. But unwilling to stand on prestige or stretch a point they wisely and diplomatically got the unregistered one of their unions registered, so that all the members of the Strike Committee became accredited representatives of registered unions. Mr. Jhabvala, who has never lacked promptness and resourcefulness in bringing into existence fresh unions, went a step further. He created a new union and had it registered only three days ago. Thus there are now four registered unions in response to the mill-owners' virtual challenge to the Joint Strike Committee representing two of them. Meanwhile the mill-owners themselves slightly shifted their ground and wrote to the Strike Committee insisting that it was not enough for the strikers' representatives to belong to registered unions but that each of the three existing unions should send only two representatives. Will the Strike Committee accept the mill-owners terms? If they do, what about Mr. Jhabvala's union? These are questions that still remain to be settled. A fair way out of the difficulty is that suggested by the Strike Committee, namely, that as it consists entirely of representatives of registered unions, it should be considered quite competent to open negotiations on behalf of the workers by deputing six representatives of its own.

HINDU-MUSLIM CONCORD.

The "Times of India," as is the wont of Anglo-Indian journals, avidly advertised to the world, under a banner heading, the fact that a riot had taken place on Bakri-Id day at a village thirty miles away from Delhi. For the "Times" that incident was the most important item of news of the day. It did not matter to it that in a vast country like India, the day on which two important festivals of Hindus and Muslims were observed, passed off quietly. To those who have carefully followed the history of India during the last two or three years the peaceful manner in which the Bakri-Id was celebrated conveys a meaning of its own. It is the remarkable confirmation of the change in the outlook of both Hindus and Muslims as a result of the appointment of the Simon Commission. The calculated affront of that Commission has brought Hindus and Muslims together as closely as they were brought together by Jallianwalla and this second meeting together, coming as it does after the bitterest conflict between the two during British Rule, is of a character infinitely more abiding. It is for the leaders of the two communities to consolidate this incalculable gain for the speedy realisation of the national end of freedom.

BUTLER COMMITTEE AND ITS WORK.

INDIAN STATES' SUBJECTS' VIEW-POINT.

(BY G. R. ABHYANKAR).

II.*

The powers of the Paramount Power exercised over the Indian States are regulated partly by Treaties and Engagements, Sanads, Usage and political practice and some are independently of these treaties. These powers which follow from the position of the sovereignty of the British Government over the Indian States and which exist independently of the treaties and which have been clearly emphasised and reaffirmed by Lord Reading in his despatch to His Exalted Highness the Nizam have not been specifically referred to, have not been given any special prominence in this term of reference. This is a most deplorable omission and will seriously prejudice the course of investigation by this Committee. The principal complaint, the main grievance, the acute cause of dissatisfaction amongst the Indian Princes is the interference in the internal affairs of the Indian States and every time it is contended on behalf of the Indian Princes that their treaty rights are violated. In considering, in deciding, the justice or otherwise of the complaint or the grievance of Indian Rulers it is necessary to have a clear grasp of the different capacities through which this power of interference is exercised by the Paramount Power or the Suzerain Power over the Indian States. If this interference is exercised on the strength of Suzerain Power altogether different consideration shall have to be weighed in arriving at any conclusion about the proper or improper exercise of this power in this capacity. There would be a different set of considerations in determining the validity or otherwise of interference based on treaty rights. It is therefore, a matter of great regret that in the very first term of reference the real standpoint from which the relations of Indian States can be properly examined has been altogether ignored and this it is which is sure to create confusion and misdirect the scope of this inquiry. Irrelevant issues are likely to be raised and this would lead absolutely to nothing in arriving at a proper solution of this complicated problem. We, therefore, have to urge on the attention of Government and the Committee that the dictum of Lord Reading about the position of Suzerain Power must be prominently kept in view and the whole situation of the Indian States must be surveyed from the standpoint.

LORD READING'S DICTUM.

Lord Reading has stated the following propositions:—

1. The sovereignty of British Crown is supreme in India.
2. No Ruler of an Indian State can justifiably negotiate with the British Government on an equal footing.
3. That the supremacy of the British Government is not based only upon the treaties and engagements but exists independently of them.
4. The British Government has the right to interfere in the internal affairs of any State to secure the welfare of its subjects whenever it is grievously affected by the actions of a Ruler to take remedial measures; and this right exists independently of the treaties.
5. It is also the right of the Paramount Power to intervene in the internal affairs of a State whenever Imperial interests are concerned. This right also exists independently of the treaties.

The whole situation, therefore, of the Indian States is to be viewed in the light of these five propositions. It is to be regretted that there is no clear enumeration of this proposition in the instructions issued by the Committee to the Indian Rulers as can be gathered from the speeches of the Chairman of this Committee. Treaty rights only loom large in the discussion of this inquiry and they are sure to obsess the minds of the Indian Rulers and of the Committee in considering the whole situation. There is a danger of fundamental points being overlooked and the scope of the inquiry becoming extremely narrow one-sided and parochial.

CAUSE FOR INTERFERENCE.

As regards this supreme power of interference existing independently of the treaties inherently possessed by the Suzerain Power the following points required to be noted clearly.

1. The British Government has undertaken the defence of the Indian States from foreign enemies or from their neighbours. The Government has also undertaken the defence of the Indian States to maintain internal security and tranquility and to protect the Princes from internal commotions, disorder or unrest of their own subjects. Any dispute, any rebellion, any anarchical movement is not permitted within the limits of Indian States by the British Government. In the present condition of the Indian Rulers as they do not possess any efficient army it would be impossible for them to hold their own position and their Gadis unaided by the Suzerain Power against the inroads of their own subjects or the forces of revolution, rebellion and anarchy. The subjects of any free State have the birth right to liberate themselves from an oppressive rule. But the Governor-General has to run to the rescue of the Indian Rulers with the armies maintained by the Government of India. The bayonets of the British Indian army protect these Indian States from internal commotions and disorder. Since British Government is responsible to keep this internal order, it has also the Imperial duty and authority and responsibility to see that there is no maladministration, no misrule, long continued and gross, provoking the discontented subjects to rise in revolt against their Rulers. And this is what has been authoritatively pronounced and emphatically asserted by Lord Reading in the words that "the internal no less than the external security which the Ruling Princes enjoy is due ultimately to the protecting power of the British Government." The price, therefore of securing internal peace, the continuity of the families of the Indian Rulers and the permanence of their royal heritage to their respective Gadis, the price, therefore, of these privileges and advantages is the supreme right to interfere in the internal affairs of every State in the interest of its subjects for the sake of securing the general welfare of these subjects, and this right exists independently of the treaties.

THE CRITERIA.

When once this position is clearly understood, does it not necessarily follow that the Indian Rulers must maintain an administration which secures the general welfare and the contentment and the happiness of the subjects consigned to their care? Does it not logically follow that this Indian States Inquiry ought to have placed this in view as one of the important points which require serious consideration dealing with the Indian States. So far as one can gather the Committee has altogether brushed aside this salient point. The proper consideration of this point would necessary lead to the investigation whether good administration exists in the Indian States. The real criteria by which the quality of administrations in the Indian State can be judged or assessed are (1) whether there is Parliamentary Government in the Indian States and (2) whether here is the rule of Law in the Indian States. These two questions ought to have formed part of the terms of reference of an Indian States Inquiry Committee. But since they are, altogether omitted subjects of Indian States demand that another Committee should be appointed to which these questions should be specially referred. Such a Committee should be composed of independent persons unconnected with the Government of India or with the Political Department. They should hear both sides that of the Rulers and the ruled in the Indian States. The labours of such Committee would be useful in reforming the administration in the Indian States and in ascertaining whether the responsibility of the Suzerain Power for the general welfare of the subjects of Indian States is adequately discharged. What the subjects of the Indian States demand is such an inquiry and this is directly related to the duties of the Suzerain Power.

(To Be Continued).

Notes of the Day.

Against The Country's Verdict.

The Simon Commission has at last the satisfaction of having one Committee to work with it, the Auxiliary Committee to report on the growth of education in British India. It is a Committee composed wholly of nominated members, four of them being officials. Of the non-officials who are in a minority on the Committee, Raja Narendranath, the Punjab M. L. C., is presumably there because his communalism got the better of his nationalism. As regards Mrs. Muthulakshmi Reddi it is a pity that she regards the boycott resolution passed by the Madras Legislature of which she is the Vice-President with such scant courtesy as to allow herself to be nominated on a body appointed to serve the Commission. Possibly her apprehension is that the case of women's education in India will go by default if she does not help the Commission. Her fears are wholly unfounded. India's case will not go by default if Indians learn the value of self-reliance.

Foiled.

British capitalism is foiled for the present at least in its attempt to set at naught the excellent work done in the cause of workers all the world over by the Washington Hours Convention. The eight hour day it agrees upon has stuck in the nostrils of British capitalism and the present Tory Government in England, always ready to obey its behests, began from March last a determined effort to secure the revision of the Convention. They had on one pretext or another postponed the ratification of the Convention and questions in Parliament on the subject were becoming inconvenient to answer. So they took the bold step of risking the wrath of Labour parties in every European country and submitted to the International Labour Office at Geneva the astounding proposition that industrial conditions in England did not favour the eight hour day. They desired, therefore, a revision of the Convention. The fact that the British proposal was thrown out by 12 votes to 11 is significent. It shows that even if England can win over Canada and Germany to her side, she has a solid international wall of Labour sentiment to meet. The victory should encourage Labour to obtain ratification of the Convention in every country.

Indefensible.

At the end of the month the public has been vouchsafted the information that at the beginning of May "a special meeting of the Committee of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce discussed the industrial situation at Howrah". No suggestions came from this special meeting which would help in easing the situation, but the patriotic Britishers did one great thing for the preservation of law and order, as they understand it. They sent a letter to the Government of Bengal denouncing the activities of "a British subject, a professed communist, who had been associated with the agitation for prolonging the strike". They demanded that persons holding views similar to his should be prevented from entering this country. This proposed embargo on the freedom of movement of persons whose opinions are distasteful to capitalism is a totally indefensible step which cuts at the very root of civilized Government. If Government consider that a person is preaching views subversive of peace, the right thing for them is to prosecute him when in their opinion the offence has been committed and not to assume that holders of particular political opinions are guilty and their movements must be restricted, simply because they hold those opinions. The Government of Bombay took the straightforward course of prosecuting Mr. [redacted]. They failed in their object. But this is a far more equitable procedure than the arbitrary refusal of passports to particular individuals.

Well Done!

At the luncheon given by the British Indian Union to the Indian Hockey-team which has covered itself with glory throughout its European tour, it was announced that Europe now proposed to model the game of hockey on Indian lines. Indians will hear with legitimate pride that at least in one particular form of sport India has shown, that she has something to teach the West. But a great patriotic duty lies on our countrymen in this connection. The President of the Indian Hockey Federation has drawn attention to the lamentable fact that only about half the amount required for the expenses of the Olympic Hockey team from India has been subscribed up to date. Of this amount the Indian Army and Europeans in India have contributed a substantial portion. We hope Indian sports clubs all over the country will take the matter promptly in hand, organise matches and sporting contests and devote the funds obtained through them to making up the amount the Olympic Team requires. Sport, as Sir Dorab Tata very rightly observed when presiding over the London reception to the Team, always paved the way to a better understanding between nations. It will be an excellent thing if India financed adequately the proposed cricket and soccer tours.

RESPONSE TO BARDOLI'S APPEAL.

LETTER TO MAHATMA GANDHI

BOMBAY GOVT.S THREAT

SIMLA, May 31.

The Hon. Mr. V. J. Patel, President of the Legislative Assembly has addressed the following letter to Mr. Gandhi explaining his attitude and views on the conflict between the people of Bardoli Taluka in Gujarat and the Government of Bombay and contributing Rs. 1,000 per month towards the fund that has been started to help the sufferers.

"My dear Mahatmaji,—I have seen the public appeal for funds which you have made on behalf of the people of Bardoli Taluka which is part of my constituency. As a Gujarati myself and as a member of the Legislative Assembly representing Gujarat I have been closely following the struggle that is going on in Bardoli. In my humble way and consistently with the obligations of the office I hold I have endeavoured to obtain a hearing on behalf of Bardoli Satyagrahis. If the subject matter of the grievance complained of were within the jurisdiction of the Government of India I could have in accordance with a convention recently established claimed the personal intervention of His Excellency the Viceroy or the member of his Council concerned and asked him to look into the matter himself with sympathetic consideration. This convention was established for the first time last year when my constituency was the victim of unprecedented floods and on that occasion His Excellency the Viceroy at my request was pleased to visit the flood-stricken areas and to extend his moral as well as material support to my people. The subject matter of the grievance in this case being entirely within the exclusive competence of the Government of Bombay I am unable to rely upon that convention.

ALL CONSTITUTIONAL METHODS EXHAUSTED.

My study of the struggle has convinced me that Bardoli people have a just case for asking for an independent and impartial enquiry. I am also convinced that they have exhausted all other constitutional methods open to them for the redress of their grievance. I have watched with admiration the courage patience and suffering of the men and women of Bardoli and I have also watched with equal pain and indignation some of the coercive measures that have been adopted by Government to collect the assessment which is the bone of contention between Government and the people of that taluka. I believe that the measures adopted have crossed in several instances the bounds of law, order and decency and the arrogant letter of the Commissioner N. D. has painfully aggravated the situation In these circumstances I feel that I cannot remain silent and inactive. I am sorry that I cannot at the present moment express my deep sympathy to the people of the taluka and my strong disapproval of the coercive measures and of the letter of the Commissioner N. D. more tangibly than by sending the accompanying small contribution of Rs. 1,000 towards the fund which is now being raised on their behalf. I propose to continue to send the same amount from month to month so long as the struggle lasts.

I wish to give you this further assurance that at the very first opportunity I shall place myself in communication with those who have called me to the high office I have the honour to occupy and which I regard as simply a trust on their behalf and if I find that I can take any other more effective step to help the sufferers of Bardoli you will not find me lagging behind. With kind regards.

Yours sincerely,
(Sd.) V. J. PATEL."—A.P.

GOVT.S THREAT TO BARDOLI

The Government of Bombay have issued the following announcement to the occupants of land in the Bardoli Taluka and Valod Mahal:—

The occupants of agricultural land in Bardoli Taluka and Valod Mahal with the assistance of persons who do not reside there, combined in February last to refuse to pay the revised assessment. The Settlement Officer had proposed an increase of 30 per cent. The Settlement Commissioner's recommendations involved an increase of 29 per cent. Government after the most careful enquiry and the fullest consideration of all the objections raised both by the cultivators and certain Members of the Legislative Council fixed the rates at 20 per cent. in excess of those paid during the 30 years' currency of the previous settlement. Uptil the middle of April last the Revenue Officers confined their action to notices of demand and attempts at distraint. The latter were frustrated by organized evasion, the locking up of houses and threats to the Village Patels and Vethyas of boycott and excommunication.

Government then reluctantly resorted to the forfeiture of land and organized attachment of baffaloes and moveable properties. Twenty-five Pathans were obtained to assist the Mamlatdar and Mahalkaris in the work of attachment and the care of animals attached. Unfounded allegations have been made against these Pathans. Government are satisfied that their conduct has been exemplary in every respect. They are being employed at headquarters to look after the buffaloes distrained, and also in parties of 5 to assist in making attachments under the eye of the Mamlatdar and the 4 Mahalkaris. The notion that 5 parties each of 5 Pathans working under the eye of a responsible officer of Government can terrorize a population of 90,000 persons, as has been alleged in certain newspapers, is incredible. Nevertheless as soon as the threats to the Vethyas are withdrawn by the Non-Co-operation leaders and they are allowed to resume their lawful occupations, the necessity for retaining these Pathans will disappear, and they will be sent away.

THREATS TO "DEFAULTERS."

The non-agriculturist defaulters have been served with notices of forfeiture accompanied by a special warning that their lands would be entered as Government unoccupied waste on expiry of the period of such notice and disposed of to persons applying for the occupancy as opportunity occurred; "and that such lands once disposed of, would never be returned to them."

Up to date 1,400 acres of such land have been disposed of and about 5,000 acres more will be disposed of in due course unless the arrears due thereon be sooner paid.

Applicants, Hindus, Mahomedans and Parsis, many of whom reside in Surat district, are forthcoming for all this land. It is evident that these persons have no apprehensions that the revised assessments are excessive and that they will be unable to pay them.

A very small area of land belonging to agriculturists with large holdings has been similarly dealt with.

Notices of forfeiture of land belonging to other agriculturists have been issued and in some cases proclamations of sale have been made. The area of land so dealt with is very considerable.

Government wish to draw the earnest attention of the cultivators of Bardoli and Valod to the above statements of fact. The Non-Co-operation leaders declared that Government would be afraid to forfeit any land and that if they did, no one would dare to come forward to take up the occupancy. They also said that no one would dare to purchase the buffaloes that had been distrained. These declarations have been proved to be entirely incorrect. They further stated that none of the land revenue would be paid. This statement is equally incorrect. Up to the present one lakh of rupees have been recovered by Government towards the realization of the total revenue of the Taluka and Mahal; that is, nearly one sixth of the revenue has already been paid up. It is to be noted that in the neighbouring Taluka of Chorasi, where the revised rates are higher than in Bardoli and have also been introduced this year, over nine-tenths of the land revenue has been paid up.

NAMES KEPT SECRET.

Many of the payments in Bardoli and Valod have been received from occupants of all castes and creeds whose names have been kept secret by Government officers, so that they may not be harassed by excommunication, social boycott and fines, with which occupants who pay their lawful dues to Government have been threatened by the Non-Co-operation leaders.

Government believe that many more persons are anxious to pay and Government wish to give them full opportunity to do so, and so save them from loss of their land. They are therefore informed.

(i) That the Collector has the power to give exemption from the payment of one-fourth fine which is due from defaulters, and that he will exercise this discretion in the case of persons who pay their land revenue on or before June 19th.

(ii) That payments may be made through any Government Officer, or by remittance to the Taluka, Mahal or Huzur Treasuries.

BRITISH INDIA AND STATES

SIR LESLIE SCOTT'S SCHEME

TOTAL REJECTION ADVOCATED

MYSORE, May 31.

At the instance of the Hosakoppa Krishnarao, the nationalist leader, the Mysore Peoples' Congress has adopted two resolutions, one demanding unconditional repeal of the Mysore Press Regulation and the other urging rejection in toto of Sir Leslie Scott's scheme.

The mover of the second resolution said that Sir Leslie Scott's scheme, while effectively preventing the formation of a free federated India at any time, contemplated perpetuation of the Indian States in a condition of tutelage, the States having to settle their disputes with British India or between themselves by the intervention of a third power.

Another resolution declaring that the State's ultimate political goal was Full Responsible Government under aegis of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore was, after full discussion, accepted.—A. P.

ADMIRABLE SPORTS MANSHIP OF INDIANS.

THEIR BEHAVIOUR A LESSON TO EUROPE

SIR DORAB TATA ON IMPORTANCE OF SPORT

LONDON, May 30.

The British Indian Union gave a reception to the Indian Hockey Team at Hotel Cecil in the afternoon with Sir Dorab Tata in the Chair, in the absence of Lord Reading. Sir Dorab Tata, congratulating the team, said that in sport lay the solutions of all problems concerning two nations and Sports always paved the way to a better understanding. He advised the Indian graduates in British Universities to become sportsmen.

Mr. Rosser replying, said that the team went on a missionary work. He was informed that Europe proposed to remodel the game on Indian lines. He hopeil that the proposed cricket and soccer tours would be similarly successful.

Mr. Turnbull said that he yielded to nobody in his admiration of Indians as sportsmen. The British Consul in Holland had told him that the behaviour of the Indians was a lesson to European countries, and they had done more in Holland for the British Empire than anybody during his time. Mr. Turnbull corroborated Mr. Rosser by authoritatively stating that the Indian short passing game would soon come into vogue all over Europe.—Reuter's Special.

POLICE OPEN FIRE

ALLEGED THREAT TO SUPERINTENDENT

NEW DELHI, May 31.

Further details are now available of the communal fracas near Ballabgarh yesterday. It appears that the village is not Sehci but Softa. Trouble has been brewing since the beginning of this month when the Mussalmans of the locality applied for permission to sacrifice cow. This was contested by Hindus on the ground that no cow had ever been sacrificed in the locality. An agreement was however reached and signed on May 25 whereby Mussalmans consented to forego sacrifice of cow. On May 29 the superintendent of police, Ballabgarh, warned the Hindus and Mussalmans of the locality that they would be held responsible if there was any trouble in the village. A cow was, however, brought for sacrifice yesterday. This news spread like wild fire in the locality and the Hindus of the place were augmented by their co-religionists from six neighbouring villages. The Hindus demanded that cow should not be sacrificed. The authorities assured them that cow would not be sacrificed. The Hindus thereupon demanded that the cow should be given to them. The Mussalmans would not agree to do this. Failing in their aim to rescue the cow the Hindus threatened to assault the Superintendent of Police who had to open fire. The firing continued for ten minutes and eight were killed and forty wounded. There was a panic and people fled to their villages. One of the wounded was brought to Delhi hospital where his statement was recorded

The situation is now well in hand.—A. P.

PEACEFUL ID

PEACEFUL BAKR ID IN DELHI

NEW DELHI. May 31.

The leading of sacrificial cows through certain streets was carried out peacefully this morning at Pahari Dheraj where a riot had occurred some years back. A detachment of British infantry was stationed at the entrance of the streets from where Mr. William Christie with military and police officials supervised the operations. The streets were constantly petrolled by armoured cars. A detachment of Indian cavalry and several police pickets were posted inside the streets while policemen with fixed bayonets were stationed as house tops all along the thoroughfare. Eight cows passed through the streets in succession in Pahari Dheraj. Similarly four cows were taken to slaughter house near Nahar Saadatkhan and three in Bazar Tharwarkhan.

Everything is quiet in the city.—A. P.

ARMOURED CARS PATROL DELHI STREETS

DELHI, May 30.

The Bakr-Id and the Ekadashi celebrations have so far been peaceful. The Hindu shopkeepers, who in past years have observed a hartal on the Id, this year kept their shops and places of business open.

Id prayers were said this morning at the Idgah. The Deputy Commissioner of Police and the Senior Superintendent of Police were present. Kurbani began this morning, but no cows were led through the streets to-day. It is expected that they will be led through Pahari Dheraj, Nahar Saadat Khan and the Majid Tahawarkhan Bazar to-morrow morning.

The police authorities have taken all precautions against a breach of the peace. Three detachments of the Indian infantry are stationed at Queen's Gardens behind the Town Hall and armoured cars are patrolling the town. A detachment of British infantry is posted at Baratoti, at the entrance of the Pahari Dheraj and another is at the Central Police Station. —A. P.

PEACEFUL CELEBRATIONS

QUIET IN LAHORE

LAHORE, May 30.

Bakr-Id passed off peacefully in Lahore to-day. In the morning about 30,000 Mussalmans assembled at the Royal Mosque where they offered Id prayers after which the assembly quietly dispersed to their homes where they performed Kurbani. Excellent police arrangements had been made and special police pickets had been posted at all the important chowkis of the city. The Deputy Commissioner, the senior Superintendent of Police and Magistrates were present this morning at the gate of the Royal Mosque personally supervising traffic. Afterwards they made a round of the city.

Nirjala Ekadashi, the Hindu festival coinciding with Id day, thousands of Hindus, men and women, went to the river Ravi early in the morning where they had their baths without any untoward incident. Here also police had made arrangements for the control of traffic and the convenience of the bathers.

Up to noon everything was quiet in the city and reports from the City Kotwali show that there was no fear of any breach of the peace in any part of the city. Everything is being perfectly quiet and peaceful.—A. P.

NEW YORK.

New York Closed.—Unfavourable Weather New Orleans 6 to 8 Points Higher

New York, May 30.

The New York Cotton Exchange was closed to-day. The New Orleans futures market ruled steady on reports of further rains over Atlantic states and closed at a rise of 6 to 8 points. Spot cotton prices were raised by 14 points to 20.56c.

At present the weather all over the Cotton belt is fairly favourable and in some section it is said to be ideal and soil is reported in fine condition. The crop is making good progress but owing to unfavourable start the outlook is still poor in some spots. If present favourable weather continues, we believe there will soon come a belief for a moderate crop. Messrs. J. W. Jay & Co. of New York estimate the condition of the growing crop at 70 per cent. against 72.4 per cent. last season at this period. This report shows an unfavourable condition by about 2 1/2 per cent., while acreage is reported to have increased from 5 to 8 per cent., At this early date, no crop estimate is worth following, however we will mention that at this period last year the average belief was for a crop of 14 1/2 Million Bales. It may be mentioned that present outlook can easily be altered by one to million bales according to weather developments hereafter and we see no reason to attach too much importance to the present outlook which is considered fair.

Nature's way to a perfect complexion

Natural ways are always best. Nature meant women to have a beautiful complexion. Nature gave us a skin which consists of several layers because it meant the outer layer, which is exposed to the air and dust and so gets worn and discoloured, gradually to dissolve away and make room for the fresh, young skin underneath. Unhappily, modern life only too often interferes with Nature's plan and minute particles of the old, worn-out cuticle remain to clog up the tiny pores and choke the young skin underneath.

That's why complexions are apt to become dull and muddy and that's why so many of our professional beauties use Mercolized Wax so regularly. Mercolized Wax has this peculiar property. Gently rubbed in with the finger-tips at night, it quietly and imperceptibly dissolves away all the tiny particles of worn-out skin while you sleep, so that you wake in the morning with a complexion that is absolutely clear and fresh. It is Nature's way to natural beauty. Just try this simple plan to-night, but be sure to ask the chemist for pure Mercolized Wax. Nothing else will do.

MERCOLIZED WAX

DOES NOT contain Mercury or anything injurious to the complexion, and is guaranteed not to encourage the growth of hair.

COTTON TECHNICAL SITUATION STRONG

RISKS TO BULL THE TAIL OF A SHORT CROP

Messrs. Vurdhman & Co.'s Views.

Bombay, May 31.

America:—During the week under review cotton prices fluctuated within a very narrow range as supply and demand of contracts are balanced in response to improved weather conditions and prices recorded a nett decline of 22 points in New York July option.

Business in Europe was interfered owing to Whitsuntide Holidays and New York was also closed yesterday and as usual the markets ruled narrow with no new feature.

Weather reports were mostly favourable and Texas crop is 90 per cent. planted and is said to require fine open dry climate for a normal yield. Messrs. J. W. Jay & Co. estimate the condition of the growing crop at 70 per cent. against 72.4 per cent. last year at the end of May. Thus it can be seen the condition is in no way better than what it was last year. The probable yield cannot be ascertained with any degree of accuracy as the acreage question still remains unsettled and official figures will not be known until the beginning of next July.

The technical situation of the market is undoubtedly strong and with stocks at its lowest ebb is likely to encourage bullish activities on any adverse crop factor, but it remains to be seen as many wise people say that never to bull the tail of a short crop.

At any rate as we have to pass through a critical crop periods and with our lights cannot but advise purchases on dips.

Bombay:—During the week in sympathy with quiet Overseas advices, the local market established a decline of Rs. 7/- in the quotation of Broach July-August contract which is quoted to-day at Rs. 389/-.

The speculative position of the market has greatly improved owing to recent liquidation. The open sales are either against ready cotton or against purchases of American cotton. The local market despite unusually large stocks present strongest position as there is little or no cotton, which can be said a fair tender. Thus with no tenderable cotton behind short sales, particularly against July hedge contracts, we believe sales are likely to result in losses, as any squeeze or bull manipulation may entirely change the present aspect.

The mill strike still continues to the detriment of our national staple industry and export continues if not brisk is certainly liberal.

We remain bullish and advise purchases at present level and on all breaks.

Eczema, Rashes

Sores & Eruptions Soon Heal when the Blood is cleansed with

Clarke's Blood Mixture

"In 3 weeks my face was entirely cleared."

Mr. Charles S. Abbott, of 28, Rendlesham Road, Clapton, London, England, writes:—

"In July last I contracted a very bad attack of Barber's Rash. My face was covered with the sore places and was very painful and swollen. I attended a hospital for some time, undergoing electric treatment, etc., without any appreciable result. Then a member of the family persuaded me to try a bottle of Clarke's Blood Mixture. The first two bottles stopped all the discharge and the swelling vanished. In 3 weeks my face was entirely cleared and no trace of the complaint has ever reappeared."

A YEAR OF FORECASTS.

HIMALAYAN JOSHIMAHARAJ BIDS GOODBYE

To-day, I complete a full 'round' innings) of one year's forecasts—of "joothaing and labadding, truth to tell. On June 2nd 1927, in a moment of indiscreet inspiration, I imposed on my delicate shoulders the task, pleasant as I thought it to be, of foretelling the lot assigned to all mortals by Goddess Luxmi on the sixth day after birth, according to Shastras of some Indians, (I say "some Indians," because, there are many up-to-date "West-returned" Indians who poohpooh this theory). I saw before me the example of the "Old Woman of Bori Bunder" reading the career and predicting the mortals' fate every day; and I mused, without method, within myself thus: 'Lo, here is the Old Woman of B.B. who, like an old Gypsy woman or man sitting on the pavement not far from her offices, is doing her bit in acquainting the mortals of their "kismet" what to do and what not to do. She conquers and why shouldn't I, in my own special way. If a white skinned woman can do a bit of forecasting, why shouldn't a pigmented youth do the same in his own land, the East, where astrology and astronomy, not to mention other divine sciences, took their birth. Yes, I must. Show cause, why I shouldn't" At once I betook myself to scribbling out the preliminary hash, call it write-up, with the first day's divination. And lo, it won the smiles of the big boss in the mighty Chair! So, that's the short and sweet origin of the "labadding" business, as there is the short and sweet cause of Indians' fight for Swaraj, viz., grab, grab and grab policy of G. B. (not G. B. Shaw, mind you).

So if any credit is due to any one, for this whole year's tamasha, it is first and foremost to that grand Old Dame, Lord bless her nonagenarian soul! I bow to her as reverently as a certain member is reported to have done at the mighty feet of Simonji on his landing on Bombay shores, for giving me the inspiration. This remarkable Old Dame now in her 90th year (born 1838, still going as strong as a flapper under 21) gave birth to a robust child in her 84th year, a feat unparalleled even in this freakish world, and at the age of 89, she became a Herschel giving for one anna every day not only the world's latest news but also telling the 'kismet' of all, thus driving away the gypsies from Hornby Road footpaths or the Esplanade maidan close by her, who read the pedestrians' 'nasib' for an anna or two. More power to her elbows!

"BEYOND A JOKE."

Encouraged by the sweet smiles of the Editor Sab (reminiscent of some gubernatorial smiles I have seen) I continued my game of reading, daily, past present, future, pluperfect, etc., in the Joothabhai Way; but my enthusiasm was of as great a duration as that of a newly-married man whose enthusiasm wears off (if not his strength) soon after the sweet seven days of honeymoon, and my case was exactly like that. In a month or two I found that to crack jokes every day was not a joke. But the hukum of the boss was to continue the game. "Punch" in war days gave utterance to one of its most famous lines, viz., "This war's got beyond a joke", and I soon said to myself "this jokes' job has got beyond a joke." I scratched my scalp every day, thenceforward, for some nuts to crack, or failing that, to crack my own pate!

But the efforts, humble as they were and experimental like the enthusiast's wedding, have been—is it presumptious or egoistic to say?—crowned with some success. The forecasts, not based on any scientific study or copied wholesale from some alleged astrologer's book, emanated from imagination,—wild fancy if you please, pure and simple and unadulterated. A weary reader of the 20th century who has daily to swallow a surfeit of dailies and weeklies is soaked literally with ponderous articles. Light reading to him proves a welcome relief, and he grabs at it not only for variety's sake, but to while away the tedium and the weight of the Time that hangs heavily on him, like the Inquisition of Simon on Indians. A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest man, and I firmly believe in it. A scribbler like myself who is jack of all and m. of n. has perforce (for "pota sathi", that is "belly's sake") to partake of a nauseating heavy meal, daily, of articles on abtruse subjects which cause indigestion to the uninitiated. Light reading of fun and frolic proves a good tonic to a tired brain, and my efforts would be more than repaid if they have, some day or days at least, afforded wearied persons some relaxation, in reading innocent and pleasant (horrible only to those who are really "guilty" and to whom perhaps the cap fitted well) sketches.

RANDOM SHOTS TAKE EFFECT.

Random shots as all were, some of them, I am given to understand, took remarkable effect in the case of some persons. The cap fitted them perfectly well, putting to shame the most expert milliner or hatter in the world. A few whose knowledge of English is on a par with their intelligence, were so much struck with, presumably, the accuracy of the reading that they asked for details about the charges and address and consultation hours of the Joshimaharaj! And, I can quite realise that even out of ten random shots of a street "astrologer" or of one on the pavement or under the banyan tree, a couple of them take effect remarkably well. A Joshimaharaj's job is the safest and mott paying one provided a man has got the necessary gift of the gab and the swagger and tact to "samjav", or to take somersaults as often and as dexterously as possible, like some of our expert politicians. In fact, I am half inclined to give up the scribbling business, which brings me no butter for my bread, and take to this lying art, perfected by a whole year's "blankety blank untruthing," after putting up an attractive board with the alluring prefix of "Prof.", and the tail version of Himalayan origin etc., but wise men advise us not to kick a "walking" (Anglise, "running," income, and I stay my hand.

WHAT IS YOUR BIRTHDAY?

TO-DAY'S FORECAST.

(By KAM. Chela of Himalayan Joshimaharaj Joothabhai Labaddas.)

SIGN OF ZODIAC: GEMINI.

If to-day is your birthday, Lord bless your merry young soul. You exhibit all the manifestations of youthful high spirits, and live in an empire that is worth enjoying for (for you) and worth dying for (for others—especially the "Pariahs")! In your happy halcyon days of robust youth you will verily believe that the most completely lost of all days is the one on which you did not laugh. Being a merry companion you are a beautiful music in a journey. But there will come a tide in your affairs, which you will take at the flood and it will smilingly land you on to Sirenland, and the whole course of your life will change (alas, alackaday!). Rev. T. H. Cashmore believes (probably having more cash than a padre ought to have) that "Providence first created man, then woman, and the tobacco in order to comfort man." You are a "Chela" of the padre Sab, and will take that fatal jump into the pit into which saner men than yourself have done since the Creation, in order, as you will fondly believe, to enjoy your pipe of peace, using the choicest tobacco. Love, according to copy-book maxim philosophers, may be a spiritual coupling of two souls, but in your case it will be the sort of a coupling that we see attached to our railway wagons. The wagons are all right for some time, but the least jolt will make the couplings detached, and one portion of the train speeds, creeking onwards, and the other lags behind, and comes to a dead stop after the force of the momentum is spent. Though your mate will be singing as sweet songs as a cuckoo does, she will be acting somewhat differently from her. A cuckoo hen honourably strives with her lord in the nest, but lays her eggs cunningly in the nest of some other birds who rear up the chicks as their own, of course under a mistaken notion. Your mate, a cruel fate has ordained, will lay some one else's eggs into your nest! You can't help it, whether you know the game or not. Such are the mysterious ways of a material world. You cannot do better than think like Democritius and say: "It is better to laugh at the follies of mankind (rather womankind?) than to weep at them." A metamorphosis will take place at the fag-end of her life. She will preach on "sanctity of matrimonial bond," etc. A poacher turned a gamekeeper, as it were!

(And now we have laughed, I think sufficiently, the whole year, at the follies of humanity.—Good-bye, dear readers.—KAM.)

MR. KULKERNEY'S MIGHTY SCHEME

During the year I have given praise wherever it is due. Of course, our old colleagues, Messrs. S. H. Jhabvala and Narayan Rao Kulkerni, of the Tenants' Welfare League, etc., have got their meeds of praise, now and then. Readers will be glad to learn that Sjt Kulkerni has got some further remarkable schemes up his tattered sleeves. He has taken me into his confidence which I can, without compunction, betray for the greatest good of a greater number. One of them is "how to get 50 maunds of milk, daily, out of Bombay Pinjrapole's oxen, on co-operative basis"; and another "how to raise hospitals and rear poor children (preferably orphans) on mutual humanitarian welfare co-operative benevolent basis, in which all grown up persons are expected to give, free of charge, services, at least one day in a month, to act as male or female nurse, as the case may or may not be. The capital of the scheme is to be Rs. 5 lakhs; and I learn he will shortly approach Sir Ness Wadia to add another feather in his hat, by donating this sum., details of which he will lay bare like his feet (he belongs to the Bootless Brigade of India's millions) on ga[illegible]OS.

BYRON'S PIT[illegible]

How sweet and so[illegible]pithy are the words of Byron the Blithe. He said "Without or with offence to friend or foe, I sketch your world exactly as it goes." I have tried to sketch the life as led by people of all sorts and conditions. In order to read the character in pen picture of all persons in the world no two of whom may be alike in temperament is impossible; but I have tried as far as possible to give every day different pen pictures of human comedies and tragedies or a mixture of both. Often I was tempted to write slashing criticism against the dark deeds of human devils...a feeling which I iould but fain suppress, though fully aware that I was departing from the main object I had in view, when I had first thought of starting the series, viz., of comic sketches only.

It is human nature to know one's future. While these sketches were being published daily, some persons whose mental horizon is not remarkable for its breadth, took them rather seriously. They believed more or less in the truth of the statements, and sanctimoniously preserved cuttings, taking them to be a treasure for future guidance. But the majority, I am glad to say, took them for what they were meant. A few of the latter species, however, were anxious to see sweet things said of them on their birth-days, and gave me, more or less, solemn warnings saying: "Look here, Joshimaharaj, my birthday falls on .....; if you write d.....d silly stuff, I'll smash your bones, if not brains." A few even jocularly hinted that they would drag me to the court if they were "defamed" publicly thus! Again a few friends asked me to write on their birthdays what I honestly believed of them, and when I did so, their enthusiasm had vanished into thin air on my being "as harsh as truth". One jolly good soul requested me to give him about half a dozen Eyes in the sketch on his birthday, and I pompously exclaimed: "Thy will "is done." He got what he wanted, and he is mighty pleased. It is to be seen whether his wish that is father to the thought, makes him a champion lady killer and or seducer.

THANKS TO WHOM THANKS ARE DUE.

Once more I thank the dear Old Dame of Bori Bunder. All the tamasha was due to the inspiration she unconsciously gave me. Of course, I gratefully remembered her in several sketches. She seems to be a real sport taking the jokes sportingly. May God bless her merry soul!

And before closing and thanking readers for their patiently reading the stuff, whatever worth they may take it to be for, I must express my thanks to the Boss of the Editorial Sanctum who allowed me greater latitude, throughout, than his otherwise strictly Puritan pen (rather blue pencil) is wont to do, in the expression of my views however unpalatable or crude they may appear to be to some supersentimentalists. If my strictures on a particular day were quite inappropriate to many, they should remember that they would fit to a tee to others. If, in spite of this explanation they remain disconsolate or inconsolable, I have no other solace to offer them. May God give them that soon.

GOOD-BYE.

For myself, I have done my part, and now I beg leave to depart (though in a way am "loath to depart") Good-bye, dear readers! With the best wishes, I remain, yours sincerely.—K A M CHELA OF HIMALAYAN JOSHI MAHARAJ JOOTHABHAI LABADDAS.

An Invitation

To Every Prospective Commerce Student.

Two important considerations must weigh with you in the selection of a Commerce College :—

(1) The acquisition of most thorough and comprehensive knowledge as will enable you to efficiently meet the exacting requirements of the modern business world ; and

(2) The maximum certainty of examination success or honours at the first attempt.

BATLIBOI'S

Accountancy Training Institute

most confidently claims that, towards satisfying these two essentials, it can serve in every respect better than any other institution. Its extensive organisation has enabled it to provide its students with a high standard of tuition service which no smaller institution can afford to offer. Its Teaching Staff is composed of specialists who, by their scholastic achievement and professional and educational experience,are most thoroughly qualified for their work, and as a result, the Institute enjoys to-day a front-rank position and an unassailable reputation for the thoroughness and comprehensiveness of its Training. In order to enable you to decide upon the choice of an institution with full knowledge of the facts, this Institute invites you to thoroughly investigate its Coaching Service before joining. You are sure to profit by such investigation.

ORAL OR POSTAL TUITION.

The Institute has specialised Courses in Banking (C.A.I.B.) Company Management and Secretarial Practice (F. I. S. A.) Accounting, (F. C. R. A.), Auditing (G. D. A.) and General Commerce (D. Com. M. C. and L. C. C.) to suit Graduates, Matriculates and Non-Matriculates.

The Oral as well as Postal Courses are constructed on the best educational experience and are compiled from unequalled sources of information and specialised knowledge. No previous knowledge of the subjects of tuition is presumed. The only preliminary qualifications required are ordinary intelligence and the usual education—the Institute does the rest.

RECOGNITION BY THE G. D. A. BOARD.

The Principal's qualifications, ability and experience in the educational line have met with due recognition at the hands of the Government Accountancy Diploma Board by the Institute being recognised for training of candidates for the G. D. A. Examination.

HOURS OF ATTENDANCE.

The hours of attendance are from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 6 to 7 p.m. (S.T.) They do not interfere with your present vocation or employment and the whole day is thus left at your entire disposal.

For a free copy of the Prospectus detailing the Courses, Fees, etc. call or write at YUSUF BLDG. CHURCHGATE ST., FORT, BOMBAY.

The

Bombay Samachar

Shyly disclaims to cover all of the people in the Bombay Presidency market. That would be courting incredulity.

But if, as an advertiser, you are seeking circulation in the Bombay market that is large enough to do an effective job, and productive enough to do an efficient job, then the should be your primary medium.

DAVAR'S COLLEGE OF COMMERCE.
(Established 28 Years).

India's Future Depends on Banking, Shipping, Insurance and Joint Stock Company Expansion.

Aspiring Students of Commerce should therefore give all attention to the study of specialised Courses such as Bank Officers (A. I. B.), Insurance Managers (A. Ch. I. I.), Company Secretaries (F. I. S. A.) and General Commerce Courses (L. C. C., I. Com. M. C.) for which there is an unlimited Field and Specialised Accountancy (C. D. A.) may, wherever desirable, be taken as additional tacked in Course, as that Profession is now getting overcrowded.

TUITION THROUGH POST A SPECIAL FEATURE.
